

2017 TDA Workshops

The Dance Academy is excited to announce the return of the “Broadway Dance Center Comes to Bucks County” this summer with two returning workshops with Eric Campros and Taylor Shimko! The Broadway Dance Center comes to Bucks County is a series of learning workshops with some of the region’s top Master Dance Teachers’ that will assist our dancers to take the next step in perfecting their craft. The workshops will be done in a supportive, positive and fun environment for our dancers and they will walk away inspired and ready to take on new challenges. This program will give TDA students the opportunity to experience Master Teachers from New York City right here at the TDA studio! This is a great opportunity for the TDA dancers to learn from the leaders in the industry that have mastered the art of dance.

TDA alumni Taylor Shimko is returning home to The Dance Academy this summer and will be offering a precision dance workshop for our students. Don’t miss this amazing opportunity! Taylor began dancing at The Dance Academy at the young age of 3. She always dreamed of becoming a professional dancer. Taylor and her family continue to be a very special part of our TDA family. She grew up at the studio and graced our floors and stages until her graduation from high school. During Taylor’s senior year she began the audition process for both colleges and professional work. In May of that year she made it all the way through the two day audition process for the Rockettes. Shortly after her graduation from high school we learned that Taylor had been hired for the southern tour of the Christmas

Spectacular Show. Christmas came very early for all of us in late July that year when we were notified that Taylor would not be leaving for tour in October as she was transferred to the cast at Radio City Music Hall. At 18 years of age she joined the New York City cast where she has been performing ever since. In addition to the Christmas Spectacular productions, Taylor also performed in the 2015 Spring Spectacular which featured Derric Hough. She recently finished the 2016 Summer Spectacular in early August. With much hard work, dedication, and persistence Taylor is living her dream. Space is limited. Early registration is recommended.
